We take a lot of things for granted in our lives, such as our parents, friends, and our five senses. We never think about what life would be like if we didn’t have any of these things. But for Chang Wen-yan, life didn’t start fairly.

Chang was born with weak eyesight. He had a hard time seeing things. While watching TV one day, he learned from the news that someone cured his heart problem by running. At that time, Chang believed running to be a great exercise and fell in love with it. His poor eyesight isolated him from the rest of the world. Running became not just a sport, but also his best friend.

When Chang was twenty-two years old, an accident blinded him completely. At that time, he almost gave up his life. A friend asked Chang to go to church on Sundays, and it changed Chang’s life forever.

Through love and faith, Chang found the new meaning in life. Since then, he has done his best to help other unfortunate people. Chang has never given up running, and he has run in many marathons around the world. He believes that running is a great way to train one’s body and mind.

30. What is a great way to train one’s mind and body?
   (A) Watching TV.  (B) Watching movies.  (C) Playing video games.  (D) Running.

31. Which is true?
   (A) Chang makes his heart problem better by running.
   (B) Chang was born blind.
   (C) At one time, Chang almost gave up his life before he went to church.
   (D) Chang took good eyesight for granted.

32. Which is most likely the topic for the first meeting of the club?
   (A) Easy songs to learn on the guitar.  (B) Five tips for cleaning your guitar.  (C) Learning about different kinds of guitars.  (D) Learning how to play the guitar well.

33. Which is true?
   (A) The meeting on September 9 will be held at the gym.
   (B) Only Joy Junior High School students can join the club.
(C) Students have to pay NT$300 if they join the club before September 3.
(D) Students with no experience can join the club, and so can the ones with no guitar.

(34-35) 根據文章內容，選出正確的答案。

Dr. Albert Schweitzer (史懷哲) was born in Germany in 1875 and died in West Africa in 1965. He was a doctor who went to Africa to help Africans. However, Schweitzer didn’t plan to be a doctor until he read a story about the poor people in Africa. He then decided to study medicine, and seven years later, he became a doctor. At age 38, he and his wife, Helen, went to West Africa. He helped the sick people there for over 50 years. Also, because of his hard work, many people got to know how poor Africans were and donated money to help build a hospital there. For his devotion, Dr. Schweitzer is and will always be remembered for what he did to help the people in Africa.

34. What can we learn from Dr. Albert Schweitzer?
   (A) The spirit of giving.
   (B) The spirit of the 1870s.
   (C) The skill of cooking.
   (D) The skill of farming.

35. Why do people respect Dr. Albert Schweitzer?
   (A) He taught people in Africa how to live.
   (B) He wrote stories about the poor in Africa.
   (C) He donated a lot of money to Africans.
   (D) He helped the sick people in Africa for over 50 years.
